SIMEON NEHEMIAH CLARK.

Simeon Nehemiah Clark was born in Glover Nov. 5, 1842, and died there Sept. 27, 1916. He was one of the seven children of Cephas and Hannah Clark. He was born and lived all his life in the house on Clark Hill, which his parents built just after their marriage, and in which they spent all the rest of their days. Of his father's family one brother, Ezra L. Clark of Glover and two sisters, Mrs. Eliza Paige of Wilmington, Mass., and Mrs. Sylvia Skinner of West Glover, survive him. He married Eunice A. Aldrich of Glover and of this union four children were born, of whom two, S. Noble Clark and Mrs. Myrtle Anderson, both of Glover, survive. Their forty-five years of married life were most happy and largely spent in bringing happiness to the lives of others. As a citizen he was recognized as a man of ability and integrity. He held many public offices of honor and trust and represented his town in the general assembly. He was a kind and helpful neighbor, and was often sought for counsel. Converted when a boy, he was ever a pillar of strength in the church. For many years a local preacher, he often supplied vacant pulpits and assisted neighboring pastors with great satisfaction. He continued his work as teacher in the Sunday school until the last. The church and community suffer a serious loss by his death. The funeral services were held at the home on Friday, Rev. G. L. Wells officiating.

ting, assisted by Rev. G. W. Douglass of West Burke. The words of St. Paul, used as the text, seemed most fitting: "I have fought a good fight; I have finished my course; I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give me at that day."

SMITH-HASTINGS.

A pretty wedding took place here Wednesday evening when Armour J. Smith and Miss Frances Hastings were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Hastings. The double-ring service was performed by Rev. Mr. Warner of Barton. The bride was attended by Mrs. John Wesley of St. Johnsbury, a former schoolmate, and the best man was Maurice Smith of Glover, the groom's brother. The ceremony took place beneath an arch of evergreen and cut flowers while the rooms were prettily decorated with evergreen and golden rods. The bride wore a gown of white net, and carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas. Following the wedding a reception was held during the evening, which was attended by over 100 neighbors and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Smith received many beautiful and useful gifts including silver, cut glass, linen and paintings. A large leather Morris rocker was presented as a gift from their fellow members of the Grange. Refreshments of coffee, cake and wafers were served. Mr. and Mrs. Smith spent their honeymoon at Willoughby lake, where they had a cottage. Both bride and groom are popular young people here where they have lived for some time. The bride formerly resided in St. Johnsbury and is a graduate of St. Johnsbury academy, class of 1916. Guests attending the wedding from out of town were, Dr. and Mrs. John Wesley, Mrs. Mabel Carpenter, and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Lewis of St. Johnsbury; Frank Hastings of Passumpsic; Mrs. Dora McFarland of Burke and Hugh Hastings of North Troy.

A half-dozen or so of our young men were out one night recently in search of employment. In their search they discovered a drain tile emptying into the river. Evidently they thought it needed moving so they attempted to pick it up, but as it was held by iron spikes, this they could not do, so they possessed themselves of some good-sized stones and proceeded to smash it. The owner heard them and started to join them in his nightclothes. Mistaking their visitor for a ghost, no doubt, they fled. John says that if they will let him know when they are again seeking a job he will appear properly clothed and give them all the assistance they need.

The W. F. M. S. held its meeting Sept. 20 at the parsonage. Upon roll call nearly half the members were found present. The mite boxes were opened by the president, Mrs. Armstrong, and Mrs. Carpenter. While the boxes were being opened, those not thus engaged were enjoying homemade candy. Those engaged with the boxes gave the rest a splendid lesson in resisting temptation, fearing to indulge in sweets at that time, lest dimes, nickels and pennies disappear also. A letter from Yenking, China, was read by Mrs. George Anderson. It brought news from Heng Gie King, now receiving education in the Emma Fuller Memorial school. Heng Gie King has been given the American name, Sophia Armstrong, being named by the W. F. M. S. for their president.

Five children visited the meeting. This makes Glover's future missionary history look bright. "Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it." "Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not." Missions are a part of Christ's word and work and "thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children." Continue to bring the children, they will not disturb the meetings. Officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. Armstrong; vice president, Mrs. Wells; secretary, Clara Clark; treasurer, Mrs. George Anderson; program committee, Mrs. Carpenter, Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. Alexander; membership committee, Mrs. C. G. Miles, Mabel S. King, Clara M. Clark. The textbook, "World Missions and World Peace," will be used the coming year. One new member was taken in and all bills have been met. Much credit is due the treasurer, Mrs. George Anderson.
